26th building site of Voluntary Young people International: From the 12 to the 30 July 2017 (16 / 25 years old)

General's information

Principe

To allow the introduction of young people coming from all walks of life and nationalities and their discovery of the realities of working under contract, the rebuilding of a national heritage, communal living, of associated activities and of course the Jurassic landscape. (20 youngs can be accepted)

Conditions:

Above the age limit, from 16 to 25, (16 years minimum on the start of work on site) there are no conditions of acceptance: no necessary qualifications are needed, nor physical strength required (excepting however that the work takes registration place in the open air and in sunlight) Registration being voluntary, and you agree to carry at the takes asked of you, which will not be beyond reasonable limits.

Dailing organisation

Arrival day: you will be welcomed on site am morning on the 12 (for special cases, please telephone or mailing in advance). All after days, work begin at 7h.30 and finishes at 12h.30 (with an id morning break).

The afternoons, after lunch and chores: open air activities, artistic activities or visits take place from 16h.30 to 19h30. The evenings are free for relaxation. Perhaps night concert or animation.

Accommodation:

Accommodation is on the site, the medieval building of PRESILLY was situated on a hill on the edge of a wood excluded from the village. You will not therefore be able to go not dancing, nor run to the shops. Waiting for you is a stay "close to nature"

Sleeping in communal tents, beds, mattresses and bedding will be provided.

Meals will be taken inside an entirely renovated fifteenth century farm.

What to bring with you?

Sleeping bag (essential), torch (above all for the late to beds), working clothes (a second set is preferable, to allow for a change of clothes), baseball cap, scarf or something to protect your head from the dust and sun. Warm clothes (Jura is hot in summer, but cools quickly after 20h.00), a lightweight wing cheater, swimming costume, an old pair of shoes waterproof and easy cleaned, a small rucksack, etc...

Last but not least, all necessary toiletries, with at least 2 bath towels (in case one is left out in the rain!)
